

Updated information on Bonnier News' shareholding in Readly

On 14 April 2025, Readly International AB (publ) ("Readly") announced that Readly had entered into a share transfer agreement with Tidnings AB Marieberg ("Bonnier News") to acquire all shares in Arcy AB, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bonnier News, from Bonnier News through a non-cash issue of 22,294,688 shares in Readly (the "Transaction"). The completion of the Transaction is subject to approval by the annual general meeting on 14 May 2025. Upon the annual general meeting's resolution regarding the Transaction, the shares held by Bonnier News will not be considered.

As of today, 28 April 2025, Bonnier News holds 31,048,271 shares in Readly, corresponding to 81.91 per cent of the share capital and votes in the Company. As of the announcement of the Transaction, Bonnier News held 29,991,780 shares in Readly, corresponding to 79.12 per cent of the share capital and votes in the Company. Bonnier News has thereafter acquired 1,056,491 shares in Readly.

Following the completion of the Transaction, Bonnier News will hold not less than 53,342,959 shares in Readly, corresponding to approximately 88.61 per cent of the share capital and votes in Readly.