Changes in Nomination Committee of Readly International AB (publ) ahead of 2023 Annual General Meeting

Following Bonnier News' (through Tidnings AB Marieberg) completion of its public offer to the shareholders for all shares in Readly, all previous members of the nomination committee have resigned from their duties in the nomination committee, and a new nomination committee has been appointed. The members of the nomination committee (except Jan Lund who has been appointed in his capacity of chairman of the board) have been appointed based on the ownership as of 31 March 2023.

The Nomination Committee consists of the following members:

Anders Eriksson, chairman of the nomination committee, Bonnier News (Tidnings AB Marieberg)

Harry Klagsbrun, Harmar AB

Jan Lund, chairman of the board

The Nomination Committee's proposals will be presented in the notice for the Annual General Meeting 2023 and on the corporate website.
